

UNDERGARMENT / COMPRESSION GARMENTS

NZRL POLICY TO BE APPLIED

PRACTICE

No player is permitted to wear compression or thermal undergarments longer than below the knee or the elbow while on the playing field and in playing uniform.

This is a mandatory New Zealand Rugby League policy for the game in New Zealand and is to be applied in all grades (nursery to Premiers).

These Procedures are to be read in conjunction with the Canterbury Rugby League By Laws.